BRISTOL AMATEUR RADIO CLUB

Clubrooms:

41 Ducie Road, Barton Hill,
Bristol 5.

GENERAL INFORMATION

The Club is part of the University Settlement, and is affiliated to the Radio Society of Great Britain. It caters informally for those who are new to Amateur Radio and also for those who are interested in furthering their knowledge.

Activities include direction-finding competitions, mobile events, visits to places of interest, on-the-air station demonstrations, annual London visit, camping expeditions, contest entry, social events with other clubs, morse practice, discussions and lectures.

There is no age limit and members of either sex are welcome. Membership fees are one annual payment of ten shillings and a weekly subscription of one shilling, these fees being reduced for pensioners and schoolboys.

Meetings are held on Monday and Thursday evenings, 7 p.m. - 10 p.m. The Club station is operational on these evenings, when slow morse instruction is available.
